

The Contemporary History of RADICAL BLACK FEMINISMS

Past, Present, and Futuremaking

Wednesday, Oct. 16th - 4 PM

Higgins Lounge

Demita Frazier, co-founder of Combahee River Collective, and a Black Feminist, writer, teacher, and social justice activist, will offer reflections on the history and future of Black Feminisms, and participate in a conversation and Q&A with Clark faculty and students.

This event is sponsored by Women's & Gender Studies, and co-sponsored by The Higgins School of Humanities, the Departments of Political Science, Language, Literature, & Culture, Sociology, English, Sustainability & Social Justice, History, and Africana Studies

CLARK
UNIVERSITY

